

University Department of Political Science

L. N. MITHILA UNIVERSITY

Kameshwaranagar, Darbhanga - 846 008

Ref.-

Pol.Sc 316/22

Date.....11/3/22.....

To

The Director,

IQAC, LNMU, Darbhanga

Sir,

Please find the following as per your Letter

1. – Course Outcome
2. - Mentor-Mentee Report.

Head

Univ. Dept. of Pol. Sc.

LNMU, Darbhanga

Head

University Department of Political Science

Lalit Narayan Mithila University, Darbhanga

Course Outcome

University Department of Political Science. LNMU, Darbhanga.

Sem. I

Paper :- MPOLCC-1 Political Theory

OUTCOME :- Students are enriched with the knowledge of emerging trends and various approaches to Political Theory, major concepts of the discipline, different ideologies and some conceptual categories.

UNIT-I:- Apprising students with the emerging trends of Political Theory encapsulating the intellectual debates in Political Science.

UNIT-II:- To make understand various approaches to Political Theory.

UNIT-III:- To make aware the key concepts – Liberty, Equality and Justice.

UNIT-IV:- Explaining and analyzing the evolutionary aspects of different Political ideologies say Liberalism, Communism etc.

UNIT-V:- To explore and enquire about the contemporary trends in Political Theory like Feminism, Environmentalism and others.

Paper :- MPOLCC-2 Western Political Thought

OUTCOME :- Students are equipped with understanding of great tradition of ancient Greece, Machiavelli as modern thinker, ideas of Social Contract Theory, Bentham and Mill, ideas of Karl Marx enriched by Althusser and Gramsci and of course, contemporary Liberalism.

UNIT-I:- Insightful explanation and understanding the salient feature of ancient Greek Political thought.

UNIT-II:- Critical examination of Machiavelli as a Modern Political Thinker.

UNIT-III :- To have the idea with regard to social contractualists.

UNIT-IV :- Evaluation of the views expressed by Jeremy Bentham and J.S.Mill.

UNIT-V :- Understanding the ideas of Karl Marx, Louis Althusser and Antonio Gramsci.

UNIT-VI :- To inquire about the contemporary trends in Liberalism.

Paper :- MPOLCC-3 Comparative Politics : Concept and Model.

OUTCOME :- Students are endowed with understanding of various approaches to Comparative Politics, role of Political Socialization, Mobilization, Organs of government in China, France and Switzerland.

UNIT-I :- Explaining various approaches to the study of Comparative Politics

UNIT-II :- Assessing the meaning role and different agencies of Political Socialization, Mobilization, Modernization etc.

UNIT-III :- Understanding comparatively the Political system – China, France and Switzerland.

[Signature]

[Signature]
11.3.22

MBV
11.03.2022

[Signature]
11.3.22

[Signature]
Head
University Department of Political Science
Lalit Narayan Mithila University, Darbhanga

Paper :- MPOLCC-4 International Relation, Theory and Approaches.

OUTCOME :- Learners are acquainted with Theoretical framework of International Relations, its significance and different approaches as also fundamental concept like balance of power and national security as well as Indian approach to peace and security.

UNIT-I :- To make aware of the Theoretical and Conceptual paradigms.

UNIT-II :- To capture the intellectual journey of the significance of the evolution as a separate discipline.

UNIT-III :- Examining different dimensions and approaches to International Relations.

UNIT-IV :- Understanding the fundamental concept of International Relations, Power, Balance of Power and National Security.

UNIT-V :- Deliberating upon the Indian Approach to Peace and Security.

Sem. II

Paper :- MPOLCC- 5 Introduction to Public Administration

OUTCOME :- Stakeholders are made well versed in meaning, nature, scope and approachest public Administration, New Public Administration, impact of globalisation, IT and E-Governance financial administration and Measures to control corruption.

UNIT-I:- To acquaint with the innod meaning, nature and scope of public Administration.

UNIT-II :- Explaining the Managerial Approaches to Public Administration.

UNIT-III :- Understanding different aspects of New Public Administration with special reference to Globalisation, IT and E-Governance.

UNIT-IV :- Analysing Financial Administration and the impact of Liberalisation .

UNIT-V :- Assessing the institutional arrangements to investigate into Corruption.

Paper :- MPOLCC-6 Foreign Policy of Major Powers

OUTCOME :- To acquaint with the emerging trends of International Political system say Unipolar world and foreign policies of Major Political Power at the global level.

UNIT-I :- Understanding the Political of unilateralism pursued by the United Stats of America.

UNIT-II :- To Analyse and understand the current foreign policy of Russia with special reference to the energy reservoir.

UNIT-III :- Explanation and evaluation of China as emerging power and its growing influence.

UNIT-IV :- The examination of relationship between Japan and USA as the conflictual relation between Japan and China.

UNIT-V :- To make aware of the recent trends in British Foreign Policy and its implications for USA and European Union.

Paper :- MPOLCC-7 Contemporary Issues in International Relations

OUTCOME :- Conceptualisation of Cold War, Globalisation, EU, SAARC, ASEAN, IMF, World Bank, WTO, Etc.

UNIT-I :- Understanding the different and distinct dimensions of Cold War.

UNIT-II :- Encapsulating the emerging trends of Globalisation.

M B Vassu
11-03-2022

University Department of Political Science
Lalit Narayan Mithila University, Darbhanga

UNIT-III :- To Analyse and explain the role and signification of regional Organization Like EU, SAARC, ASEAN etc..

UNIT-IV :- To Underline the salient features of International Economic Order with special reference to IMF, WB, WTO

UNIT-V :- Making aware of the burning humanitarian issues such as displacement of population, ethnically and identity, war on terrorism as well as democratic expansionism.

Paper :- MPOLCC-8 Indian Political Thought

OUTCOME :- The generation of critical awareness of social-cultural and Political thought structure of India with special reference to different contours of Indian philosophy.

UNIT-I :- Understanding the materialistic and rich spiritualistic tradition of ancient India with special reference to Vedas, Manusmritis and Buddhist traditions.

UNIT-II :- Understanding the Political ideas of the Ramayana, the Mahabharata, the Bhagwat Gita and Arthashastra.

UNIT-III:- Explaining the ideas of major components of Social-Justice Jai Prakash Narayan, Ram Manohar Lohia and Ambedkar.

UNIT-IV :- Conceptualising Ancient Indian ideas regarding the Rashtra, Democracy, Liberty and Equality.

UNIT-V :- Awareness of modern Indian Political thinkers –Vivekanand, Aurobindo and Gandhi..

Paper :- MPOLCC-9 Political Processes and Governance in India

OUTCOME :- The focus of the paper is to create awareness of basic Philosophy and Social-Economic base of Indian Constitution as well as Political process of Governance in India.

UNIT-I :- Explaining the fundamental trends of Indian Politics.

UNIT-II :- Understanding the role of Political parties with special reference to coalition Politics and pressure groups.

UNIT-III :- Analysing the psychological aspect of Electoral Behaviour with special reference to Caste, Language, Religion, Gender and Regionalism.

UNIT-IV :-Assessing the dimension of social movements – civil liberties, human rights, women liberation and environmental.

UNIT- V :- To develop the critical thinking with regards to Criminalization of Politics, Corruption, Electoral Reforms etc.

Sem. III

Paper :- MPOLCC-10 Political Institution and Practice in India

OUTCOME :-To make understand basic principles, values in the constitution of India, functioning of federalism, organs of the union government, constitutional amendment process and various statutory bodies.

Unit- I

Understanding basic principles and values enshrined in the Constitution of India.

Unit- II

Making aware of ingredients of federalism and its functioning with special reference to centre-state relation.

[Signature]

[Signature]
11.3.22

[Signature]
11.03.2022

[Signature]
11.3.22

[Signature]
Head
University Department of Political Science
Lal Narayan Mithila University, Darbhanga

Unit- III

Analysing and investigating the three organs of union government in India.

Unit- IV

Familiarising the constitutional amendment process.

Unit- V

Encapsulating the statutory bodies in India- National commission for backward classes, schedule castes and Tribes, Including Election Commission and UPSC.

Paper :- MPOLCC-11 RESEARCH METHODOLOGY

OUTCOME :- Familiarising students in Research Methodology- scientific studies, hypothesis, sample, data collection, methods of analysis and use of computer Report and Thesis writing.

Unit- I

Analysing characteristics of scientific studies as quintessence of Research Project.

Unit-II

Conceptualising the meaning, nature and scope of hypothesis and methods of sample selection.

Unit- III

Elucidating the tools, techniques and methods of data collection.

Unit-IV

Familiarising students statistically techniques of data interpretation and use of computer.

Unit-V

To understand various methods of report writing and thesis writing.

Paper :- MPOLCC-12 State Politics

OUTCOME :- Analysing the state Politics of Bihar as micro study of Indian Politics and exploring the Potential for its development against the background of Caste, Community and Criminalisation of Politics.

Unit-I :- Deliberating upon theoretical framework of state Politics and its determinants.

Unit-II :- Investigating into union-state relations and its ramifications with special reference to Bihar.

Unit-III :- Recent trends and impact of globalisation on the state Politics of Bihar.

Unit-IV :- Understanding electoral Politics and factor influencing voting behaviour in the context of Bihar.

Unit-V :- Appraising state Administration and its Commissions on SC/ST and Women for welfare of the communities.

Paper :- MPOLCC-13 India's Foreign Policy

OUTCOME :- To underline the Philosophy behind the foreign policy of India and its underlying principles, management of external relations under the stewardship of different Prime Ministers of India.

Unit I- Familiarising students with meanings, approaches, principles and objective of foreign policy of India.

Unit II :- Focusing external domestic and leadership based elements of the Indian Foreign Policy.

Unit III :- To understand Tradition and Modernity in Indian external Policy.

MBV
11.03.2022

Head
University Department of Political Science
Lalit Narayan Mithila University, Darbhanga
11.03.22

Unit IV:- Discussing thread bare bi-lateral and multi-lateral relations of India with major powers.

Unit V:- Analysing the relationships of India and her Neighbours.

Paper :- MPOLCC-14 Political and Social Movements

OUTCOME :- To abreast the students about the origin, development and impact of various Social and Political Movements.

Unit I :- To acquaint with the meaning and perspectives of different Political and social Movements.

Unit II :- Examining the waves and dominant features of National Movement in India.

Unit III :- To understand the significance of Dalit, Tribal and Dravid Movements.

Unit IV :- To make aware of the origin and influence of agrarian movement, labour movement, women movement and environmental movement.

Unit IV :- Assessing the movements led by J.P., Anna Hazare and various identity movements.

Sem. IV

MPOLEC-1 International trade and global Politics

OUTCOME :- To appraise students about interdependent trading system in the world, GATT and WTO, role of NGO and Civil society, need for reforms and overall conditions of third World countries.

Unit-I :- To abreast the students with the origin of trading system in the world, Bretton woods system, ITO and GATT.

Unit-II :- To understand WTO, Accession process and consensus Decision making.

Unit-III :- To make aware of structural Adjustment programme and economic and Political condition of Third World Countries.

Unit-IV :- To explain the role of NGO and Civil society in International Political Economy.

Unit-V :- To focus the inter connected world economy like WTO and reform the multilateral trading system and its impact on developing Nations.

MPOLEC- 2 Indian Administrative System

OUTCOME :- To develop the understanding of Students with regards to the Indian Administration in a perspective, all India service and Central service – training, service rules and neutrality- various government departments and NDC, ECL, CVC, CBI, CAG, NITI AYOJ and CPO.

Unit I :- To evaluate the historical background of Indian Administration – Ancient, Medieval and Modern – and its legacies.

Unit II :- To explain All India services and central service, mechanisms for cadre control, training, service rules and importance of its neutrality.

Rajen
11.3.22

MBU...
11.03.2022

11.3.22

Head
University Department of Political Science
Lalit Narayan Mithila University, Darbhanga

Unit III :- To understand the structure and function of the major Department of Government of India- Home, Finance, Education, Personal and Grievances, secretariat and PMO.

Unit IV :- To throw light on the structural of NDC, ECI, CBI, CVC, CAG, and NITI Ayog.

Unit IV :- To be aware of central police organisation and need for police reforms.

MPOLEC-III Defence and Strategic Issues in India

OUTCOME :- The course deepens the understanding of security, geographic dimension of strategy and problems of War and Peace.

Unit-I :- To familiarise with basic assumption of approaches to strategic studies.

Unit- II :- Understanding of evolution of nuclear deterrence and its current relevance.

Unit-III :- Tracing historical development of nuclear doctrine and strategy of USA since 1945.

Unit-IV :- Apprising India's security concern in the context of global, regional and local environment as well as security projection .

Unit-V :- To make aware of Defence and ministry of Home as also their structure and functions.

MPOLEC- IV Global south in World Affairs

OUTCOME :- To acquaint with the developments strategies and security concerns of Third World Countries in the process of modernisation, solidarity of G77 and relevance of NAM.

Unit-I

To develop a conceptual framework of global south specifically regarding modernisation syndrome.

Unit-II

To make aware of the interdependency of North and South from NIEO to WTO.

Unit-III

To appraise transition from Third World Countries to newly Industrialized countries.

Unit-IV

To understand the Issues involved in the solidarity of G77

Unit-V

To analyse the relevance of NAM in post cold-war era.

MPOLEC-V South Asia in International Politics

OUTCOME :- To apprise the interaction between South Asia and International Politics, critical evaluation of USA, Russia, NAM and SAARC.

Unit-I :- To make abreast about synoptic view of South Asian states and their problems.

Unit-II :- To understand the factor led to the conflict in South Asia.

Unit-III :- To analyse the evolution and achievements of SAARC.

Unit-IV :- To comprehend the Inter-relationship between South Asia and USA, Russia and NAM.

Unit-V :- To visualise the prospect of peace, security and co-operation in South Asia.

[Signature]
11-3-22

[Signature]
11.03.2022

[Signature]
11.3.22

[Signature]
Head
University Department of Political Science
Lalit Narayan Mithila University, Darbhanga

MPOLEC-6, Introduction to international Law

OUTCOME :- To acquaint international law as rules of conduct of states in international Politics. It encompasses law of sea, diplomatic, immunities and privileges, treaty obligations and crimes against humanity.

Unit-I

To trace the origin, evolution and sources of International Law

Unit-II

A comparative analysis of International Law and Municipal Law

Unit-III

To apprise the process and content of codification of International Law

Unit-IV

To familiarise about different instruments of diplomatic communities, privileges and sovereign immunities.

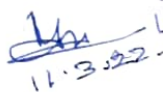

Unit-V

To assess the relevance of International Law in crimes against humanity.

11.3.22

M. B. V. S. S.
17.03.2022

11.3.22

Head
University Department of Political Science
Lalit Narayan Mithila University, Darbhanga